

XPO Ordered to Pay Up in Miami

Workers win, XPO loses, again!

A federal judge has told XPO Logistics to pay workers in Miami for raises the company unlawfully withheld after the workers formed their union with Teamsters Local 769. This decision by an administrative law judge with the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) is the latest legal victory for workers seeking justice at XPO. Workers union wins, XPO loses!

XPO needs to “make the workers whole” for any loss of earnings, according to the judge’s decision.

There is no question that XPO discriminated against these workers as a tactic to scare others from forming a union; Now XPO must pay up with interest and is again told to cease violating workers' rights!

Having a voice holds XPO accountable to you!
