

SUPPORT XPO PORT DRIVERS ON STRIKE!

- At America's largest port complex – and at seaports across the country – XPO is stomping on the rights of its workers.
- Numerous governmental agencies have ruled against XPO and ordered the company to pay drivers millions in stolen wages. XPO continues to refuse to follow the law.
- XPO drivers are once again forced to go ON STRIKE at the Ports of Los Angeles/Long Beach.

XPO Workers
WORLDWIDE!

"We're fed up with working so hard, making so little, and having no benefits. If we truly were "independent," then we could negotiate rates that would cover our truck expenses and allow us to have a decent life. But there's nothing independent about us – XPO controls our work yet continues to fight us in court."

– Jose Herrera, XPO Port/Rail Driver

We stand with

XPO

DRIVERS!

*Take a selfie photo with this card to show your support –then post it on Facebook or Tweet it with the hashtags: #WeAreXPO and #portstrike