Agreement

This contract is made and entered into by and between the Southern Region of Teamsters hereinafter referred to as the “Union” and Trailer Conditioners, Inc., Hereinafter referred to as the “Employer”.

Parties to this Agreement, desiring to promote harmony and cooperation between them and to insure the most efficient operation of TCI, hereby mutually agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 – RECOGNITION AND CHECKOFF

Section 1 – Recognition

(a) The Employer recognizes and acknowledges that the Southern Region Union Committee and Local Unions affiliated with the International Brotherhood of Teamsters are the exclusive representatives of all Employees of the Employer in covered classifications. The employees and Unions covered under this Agreement shall constitute one (1) bargaining unit.

(b) When the Employer needs additional employees, it shall give the Union equal opportunity with all other sources to provide suitable applicants, but the Employer shall not be required to hire those referred by the Union. If employees are hired through an employment agency, the Employer shall pay the employment agency fee, if any, due from the employee. However, if the Union has been given equal opportunity to furnish employees, as provided herein, and if the employee is retained through the probationary period, this fee need not be paid until the thirty-first (31st) day of employment.

(c) The Employer agrees to recommend to all new employees that they become members of the Union and maintain their membership during the life of the agreement.

Section 2 – Dues Check-off

The Employer agrees to deduct from the pay of all employees covered by this Agreement.

The dues, initiation fees and/or uniform assessment of the Local Union having jurisdiction over such employees and agrees to remit to said Local Union all such deductions prior to the end of each month for which the deduction is made. Union dues deductions shall be made from vacation checks when employees are on vacation during the week in which such Union dues deductions are made. Where law requires written authorization by the employee, the same is to be furnished in the form required. No deduction shall be made which is prohibited by applicable law. Where an employee who is on check-off is not on the payroll during the week in which the deduction is to be made, or who has no earnings or insufficient earnings during the week or is on leave of absence, the employee must make arrangements with the Union to pay such dues in advance. Dues shall be deducted during the first (1st) week of the month and be remitted to the Local Union prior to the end of the same month. On written request of the employee, payroll deductions will be made to purchase US Savings Bonds for said employee.

The Employer agrees to deduct from the paycheck of all employees covered by this Agreement voluntary contributions to DRIVE. DRIVE shall notify the Employer of the amounts designated by each contributing employee that are to be deducted from his/her paycheck on a weekly basis for all weeks worked. The phrase "weeks worked" excludes any week other than a week in which the employee earned a wage. The Employer shall transmit to DRIVE on a monthly basis, in one (1) check, the total amount deducted along with name of each employee on whose behalf a deduction is made, the employee's Social Security number and the amount deducted from that employee's paycheck. The International Brotherhood of Teamsters shall reimburse the Employer annually for the Employer's actual cost for the expenses incurred in administering the weekly payroll deduction plan.

The Employer agrees to deduct certain specific amounts each week from the wages of those employees who shall have given the Employer written notice to make such deductions. The amount so deducted shall be remitted to the applicable credit union once each month or weekly. The Employer shall not make deductions and shall not be responsible for remittance to the credit union for any deductions for those weeks during which the employee's earnings shall be less than the amount authorized for deductions.

The Local Union shall certify to the Employer in writing each month a list of its members working for the Employer who have furnished to the Employer the required authorization, together with an itemized statement of dues, initiation fees (full or installment), or uniform assessment owed and to be deducted for such month from the pay of such member, and the Employer shall deduct such amount from the first (1st) paycheck following receipt of statement of certification of the member and remit to the Local Union in one (1) lump sum. It is further agreed that the Employer shall add to the list submitted by the Local Union the names of all new employees and those hired since the last list was submitted and delete the names of employees who are no longer employed. The above shall be the practice unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

The Employer and the Union agree to meet to review the deduction and remittance of union dues upon request by either party.

ARTICLE 2 – STEWARDS

The Employer recognizes the right of the Local Union to Designate Job Stewards and Alternates from the Employer's seniority list. The authority of Job Stewards and Alternates so designated by the Local Union shall be limited to, and shall not exceed the following duties and activities:

- (a) The investigation and presentation of grievances with the Employer or the designated Employer's representative in accordance with the provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement;
- (b) The collection of dues when authorized by appropriate Local Union action; and
- (c) The transmission of such messages and information, which shall originate with, and are authorized by the Local Union or its officers, provided such messages and information:

(1) Have been reduced to writing; or

(2) If not reduced to writing, are of a routine nature and do not involve work stoppages, slowdowns, refusal to handle goods, or any other interference with the Employer's business.

Job Stewards and Alternates have no authority to take strike action or any other action interrupting the Employer's business, except as authorized by official action of the Local Union. The Employer recognizes these limitations upon the authorized Job Stewards and their Alternates and shall not hold the Union liable for any unauthorized acts. The Employer in so recognizing such limitations shall have the authority to impose proper, nondiscriminatory discipline, including discharge. However, in the event the Job Steward or the Designated Alternate has led, or instigated or encouraged unauthorized strike action, slowdown or work stoppages in violation of this Agreement, he/she may be singled out for more serious discipline, up to and including discharge. The Job Steward or the Designated Alternate shall be permitted reasonable time to investigate, present and process grievances on the Employer's property without interruption of the Employer's operation: and where mutually agreed to by the Local Union and Employer, off the property or other than during their regular schedule, without loss of time or pay, such time spent in handling grievances during the Job Steward's or the Designated Alternate's regular working hours shall be considered working hours in computing daily and/or weekly overtime if within the regular schedule of the Job Steward or the Designated Alternate. The Employer recognizes the employee's right to be given requested representation by a Steward, or the Designated Alternate, at such time as the employee reasonably contemplates disciplinary action. The Employer also recognizes the steward's right to be given requested representation by another Steward, or the Designated Alternate, at such time as the Steward reasonably contemplates disciplinary action.

It is expressly agreed and understood, however, that the provisions of the Article shall not be so construed as to deprive the Union of its right to submit to the grievance procedure provided in Article 8 hereof, any dispute with reference to order of layoff, suspension or discharge or promotion or employee's within the Bargaining Unit.

In order to provide covered employees with the maximum job security:

(a) For the purpose of preserving work and job opportunities for the employees covered by this agreement, the Employer agrees to make every reasonable effort to have such work which is customarily performed by the bargaining unit performed by the bargaining unit within their respective classification.

Reasonable effort shall include the offering of overtime work to the bargaining unit. The employees must be qualified and available to perform the work.

(b) The work of the bargaining unit will be performed only by employees in the bargaining unit with the exception and understanding that other employees not in the bargaining unit may perform such work to maintain safe operation and the training or instruction of certain personnel for the Employer, provided the employees in the bargaining unit are not deprived of hours of work they normally would otherwise have.

(c) The Employer reserves the right to make, publish and amend rules which do not conflict with the terms of the Agreement. Any violation of such rules may result in discipline including discharge as the Employer may determine, subject, however, to the grievance procedure.
