

Happy MAY DAY!

MAY 1st is INTERNATIONAL WORKERS' DAY!

Today, we honor the generations of workers who stood together to demand dignity on the job, fair wages, safe working conditions, and more. These rights didn't come easily and were not just given by a company, but were won through solidarity and collective action.

May Day reminds us that progress happens when workers unite. Together, we are stronger. Together, we have a voice. Together, we can build on the foundation that those before us fought so hard to achieve.

By standing in solidarity and choosing to come together in a union, we don't just protect what's been won — we strengthen it.

We carry forward that legacy and continue the work of improving our workplaces, our industries, and our lives.
