The Teamsters National Negotiating Committee for United Airlines met last week to review the company's proposal from the May bargaining session. Prior to last week's meeting, the company submitted an additional supplement to their offer, which the committee is now evaluating to determine the most appropriate next steps.

Once this review is complete, members will receive a comprehensive explanation of the supplement and the committee's planned course of action.

We appreciate your continued patience and will share information as soon as we can.
